Western & Central Asia and THE PEACE DIVIDEND

Since the Gulf War of '90/91, a quite remarkable degree of stability has returned to the Western and Central Asia region; not least to Iran but also to eastern Turkey, Syria and Jordan. Yes, there really is a PEACE DIVIDEND!

To emphasise this fact and to urge travellers to respond to it, every E.O. project to this brilliant part of Western and Central Asia comes with a telling message and a very useful saving.

ENFLASH . . .

SOUTH AMERICA AND MEXICO

DON'T IGNORE SOUTH AMERICA

On the 500th anniversary of Columbus' discovery of the New World, twelve pages of the Encounter Overland brochure contain what we believe are the best, most thrilling projects in the Americas – bar none!

Some date from 1972, others are last year's fantasy turned into this year's reality.

For example: TRANS-AMAZON TO THE LOST WORLD (page 12), a 31 day expedition on the green continent – indeed across the green continent.

POWERFUL STUFF

Other recent news from South America concerns the introduction of a new member to our South American fleet of vehicles. Imported from the UK, it introduces several new features, enhancing both performance and style and – although in a similar mould to the other EO vehicles proven in South America – this new Ford, with its Cummins-powered, turbo-charged engine, can claim to be the state of the art expedition vehicle for South America.

An extra vehicle in South America? Yes. But more space still available? Well, no. We have to tell you to please book while we still have places. Do make your decision on Mexico as well as South America as early as possible!

AFRICA

DESERTS ON THE AGENDA

At both ends of Africa the deserts are on the agenda. Southern stories of the Kalahari and of the Namib are about new journeys that include the Okavango Delta and the baked salt pans of Etosha (see pages 28 & 29).

Northern journeys planned to cross the Sahara must note the current tensions that exist in the Tuareg communities. The Niger/Algeria border in the central Sahara has been temporarily closed and it has to be said that currently quite a possibility exists for having to re-plan routes in North Africa and thus for having to be braced for the possibility of 'overflight' – please see page 53.

As this "Enflash" goes to press, a westerly route via Mauritania is being physically investigated by an EO reconnaissance party and the prospects are looking better by the day.

ASIA

A PEACE DIVIDEND

A year ago the Gulf War had caused terrible destruction and wreaked havoc.

But now, in order to draw attention to and to highlight the marvellous travel opportunities that can be found in Jordan, Syria, eastern Turkey and especially Iran (Persia), our Dates & Prices show ALL Transcontinental projects that include these countries have a price reduced by $275.

Without wishing to cheapen the value of peace in the region, we have called this the EO PEACE DIVIDEND. It's offering a valuable saving, it's saying "come on, there's not been a better time in the last fifteen years for a truly exotic adventure in these fabled lands" and it's going to help breathe life back into some wonderful places.

NB:

YUGOSLAVIA

With tribal-like tensions rocking the forty year old federation, at present our sensible route avoiding Yugoslavia is via HUNGARY, ROMANIA and BULGARIA.
