Kathmandu - Cairo - London
(or vice versa)

90 days
ex Kathmandu

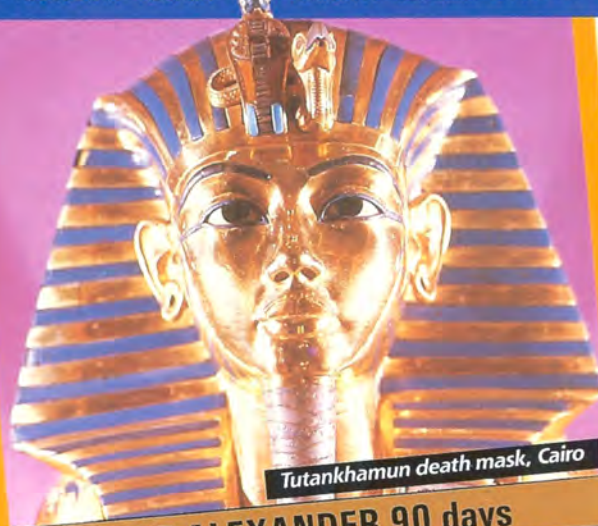

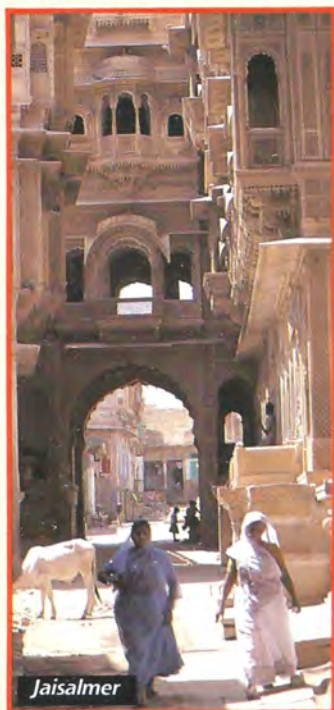

Across India and Persia to the very foundation of our western civilisation, to the ruined temples, the excavated tombs, the imperious monoliths and the pyramids of the Pharaohs of Egypt. And on to Europe across the diverse mosaic landscape of Turkey.

This is a journey of superlatives in the footsteps of Alexander the Great. The Himalayas and the Ganges, the Holy city of Varanasi, the Taj Mahal, Jaipur and Rajasthan. Over the Indus river to the lone and level deserts of Persia, the busy bazaars of Damascus, the Dead Sea, Jericho and Jerusalem. The enchanted time-warped ruins of Petra. The boat from Aqaba to Suez and so to Cairo.

Death masks of the Pharaohs, the overnight train 400 miles up the Nile to Luxor and Aswan. The fabulous, massive temples of Karnak and Philae. The diverse fascination of Turkey - remote cave churches, ruins of ancient sea ports, columns, forums, amphi-theatres and crusader castles strung along the Mediterranean's most fabulous coastline; of beaches and cliffs and cool sea breezes, the mountains of Anatolia towering behind. Gallipoli then Constantinople, Byzantium, Istanbul (3 names for one great historic city) bustling, chaotic, alive. The courtyards of the Topkapi Palace of the Ottomans and the world's finest collection of exquisite Chinese porcelain - by caravan all the way from the farthestmost other side of Asia.

So into Greece to Macedonia (original Kingdom of project's name bearer) to Yugoslavia, the Alps, the Rhine and London.

Overland from Nepal to London via Moscow! Are you serious? No, not entirely - actually it's packed with fun and lighthearted moments. Yet it's a journey quite without parallel threading together jewel after jewel from the pagodas of Kathmandu and the marble dome of the Taj Mahal to the gilded cupolas of the Kremlin.

Through the Himalayan valleys, across India by the Ganges and a twisting mountain road up to the lovely lakelands of Kashmir to relax aboard the elegant houseboats. To Pakistan and Persia by way of the Punjab and beautiful old Esfahan and the capital of the ancient Persian empire at Persepolis.

Turkey's fabulous south coast - an absolute must for stunning seascapes, then Gallipoli and Istanbul then, slipping behind the iron curtain, into Bulgaria and across the Danube into Romania through the mountains of Transylvania. Into the U.S.S.R. first to Odessa on the Black Sea, across the great Russian steppes, to Kiev, capital of the Ukraine and so to Moscow and Leningrad. Here is a remarkable insight to Russia - the facts, not the obsessions of the opposing propaganda machines.

Finland, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, lappes, reindeer, vikings, Hans Andersen's fairy people, Helsinki, Oslo, Stockholm, Copenhagen, and so to Amsterdam, city of canals and bridges.

Kathmandu - London

ex Kathmandu

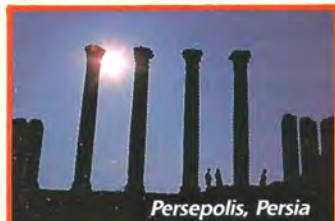

The life and times of the definitive wayfarer! A more direct journey than the others but still taking it easy, discovering the old ways. Time enough to delve or just dabble. To share in the maddening riotous life that in India never fails to amaze. Steer a course via the oasis cities of Persia to the land of plenty beyond. Domes, minarets, temples, lie abandoned to the sun and the sky. But villages live, the seas around Turkey are blue to the bottom and the sheer joy of life and living, of travel and travelling is yours till journey's end.

The Himalaya and Pokhara, Varanasi, the Temples of Khajuraho, the beauty of The Taj Mahal at Agra, Fatehpur Sikri, and the 'pink city' of Jaipur. Delhi, home of the British Raj and the foothills of the western Himalaya and the Karakoram to overlook the lush green vale of Kashmir and hospitality aboard the houseboats moored near Srinagar. To relax and explore the floating lotus gardens by Shikhar or wander at leisure through the fascinating bazaars.

Lahore, Peshawar and the Northwest Frontier Province of Pakistan, Baluchistan and the shimmering deserts of Persia. The stark landscape, the occasional village or caravanserai providing meagre shelter to the travellers of these arid wastes. Persepolis, the 2,500 year old palace city of Darius, lord of the known world, master of the Persian empire. The lovely desert city of Esfahan, fine squares, blue tiled minarets, lofty bazaars echoing to the ring of hammers. Copper, bronze, silver, fine hand made carpets, turquoise, lapis lazuli, and miniatures.

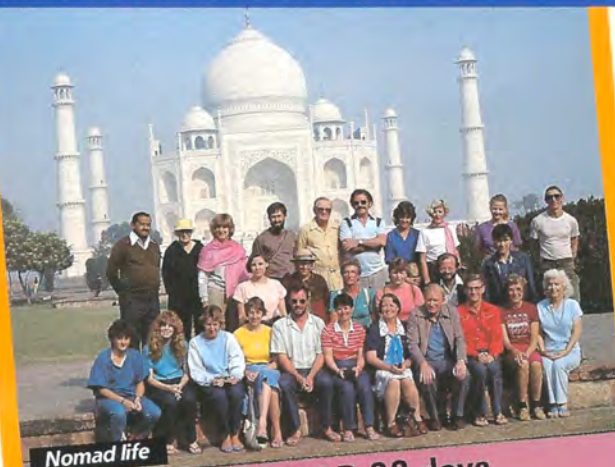

The high vistas of eastern Turkey and Mount Ararat. Goreme, a lunar landscape honeycombed with frescoed caves. Side, Aspendos and Ephesus, along the scenic coastline. The Dardanelles to Gallipoli. Marvellous beaches along the Aegean to Kavala. To Yugoslavia, the Alps, the white cliffs of Dover, The Thames, the chimes of Big Ben.

THE COUNTDOWN

10 How to Book
Please carefully read our conditions of contract. Then complete the booking form and attach the required deposit. Then please get it to your agent or directly to us soonest.

9 P.D.I. (Pre-Departure Information)
Each point below is covered fully in the P.D.I. booklet you will receive on booking. Also covered there are more tips to get the most from your journey — not that we've kept any important facts from you here — we have simply expanded on them in the P.D.I.

8 The Cost
Included in the total tour cost (i.e. the basic price plus the Bed & Board Fund) from published departure to arrival point are:- all land transport and ferry fares, the services of your driver and courier, road taxes and tolls, use of camping equipment (Cossack and part-Troika tours) and some city sightseeing. Also local guided tours (especially in India and Egypt and services of our Intourist guide in U.S.S.R. and Rumania. The cost of accommodation and meals is also covered.

For those things not included please see the contract, para 2b on back cover and Personal Spending Money, 7 below.

7 Personal Funds
By western standards overland travel remains relatively inexpensive. Based on a consensus of experiences we recommend a reasonable minimum of Dollars US$13 per day (approx. £8, AUS$20, CAN$20, NZ$22) to cover drinks, snacks, lunches, some site entrance fees, souvenirs, the odd shared taxi, postage, laundry, etc. The US$ is definitely the most negotiable currency. Carry at least US$200 in small denominations of cash and the rest, including your contribution to the Bed & Board Fund, in American Express or Thomas Cook travellers cheques.

6 Passport
Your passport must, of course, be valid for the duration of your planned stay overseas and have a clean page for each of the countries you intend to visit.

5 Visas
Sorry — but no tour here is entirely free of visa requirements. Details applicable to your chosen tour, with their cost and procedure to follow come with your P.D.I. Some are obtained prior to departure by our visa service, while those got en route are organised by your courier on a group basis.

4 Insurance & Medical

We require you to be insured and there is good travel cover available. Specifically you require not less than $50,000 (£25,000) of hospitalisation, medical and repatriation. You should also obtain cancellation and baggage. All Sundowner agents can advise.

Some vaccinations and/or inoculations that you do not already have may be required and a certificate will need to be carried. Exact details on request and anyway in the P.D.I.

3 Personal Equipment

Take only what's necessary. The listed suggestions regarding clothing and personal equipment are, as you would expect in our P.D.I. All should fit into a medium size suitcase (or rucksack) and a generous airline-type bag with a separate sleeping bag (needed, just in case, on hotel as well as camping tours.) The total weight should conform to the airline allowance of 20kgs. (44lbs).

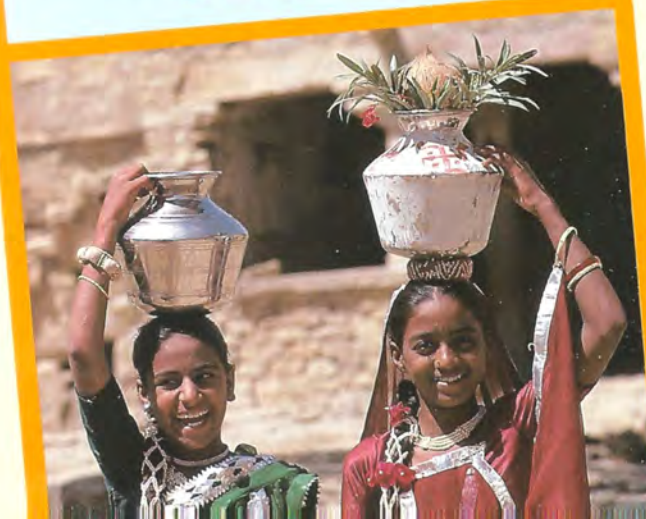

2 Post

A list of (more-or-less) reliable mailing points to receive news is supplied in our P.D.I. Tell the family and friends to allow plenty of time.

1 A Flying Start

To get to (and from) the action you will need an air ticket. We're experts here too and there are Sundowners special 'All The Way' Fares for you, including city stopovers in Bangkok and Kathmandu. Do it your way — but let us help.

Then . . . you're off! Bon Voyage, we know you'll have a fabulous trip.

HOW SUNDOWNERS CUT THE COST BUT NOT THE CORNERS!

HERE IS THE BEST VALUE ALL THE WAY EVERY DAY FROM THE HIMALAYA TO LONDON.

A small deposit secures your place. The balance is then due 60 days before your departure. The cost-saving BED-AND-BOARD FUND is separate. With it, every cent of it, Sundowners on your behalf obtain the best overland value that you can get anywhere. Your contribution to this fund is paid in Kathmandu (en route to London).

THE BED-AND-BOARD FUND (Dinner, bed and breakfast)

Because there are absolutely no deductions or overheads and because the best possible rates are negotiated, Sundowners obtain incredible value. A far better deal than any prepaid package and an even better deal than can be achieved by the persuasive bargaining of the lone traveller.

Many of the hoteliers and restaurateurs have been our hosts for years. For them too there is real value in our group size and they take extraordinary pride in extending to Sundowners a very personal service.

All-in-all, the BED-AND-BOARD FUND will leave you very handsomely in pocket just as the overland journey with Sundowners will leave you very handsomely rewarded.

Distinctive Hotels

Though hardly collecting a galaxy of stars, it must be said that many of the places we stay in are highlights of the journey in their own right. Luxurious houseboats and Rajah's lodges in Kashmir and India and turn-of-the-Century staging posts in Central Asia and the Holy Land. Then there are other hotels remembered simply for their cleanliness and the friendly hospitable ambience of an overnight stay.

Great Restaurants

In the hotels or close by, or in town or city centre are our favourite typical ethnic restaurants, with convivial atmosphere, delicious food and often with local music and dancing. Each evening the accent is on variety and value.

Summer Camping

In Russia and Scandinavia, that is the Western part of the "Troika" Tour, we adopt the camping lifestyle. If our hotels are hardly five star, our camping most certainly is. Excellent fully equipped campsites, spacious tents for two, camp kitchen, stoves, utensils, etc., everything except your personal sleeping bag and an air mattress. We'll need you to lend a hand; during the long summer evenings of Northern latitudes it's fun and rewarding to cook out and the Bed-and-Board Fund will comfortably stretch to festive fare so you'll certainly not miss out on local restaurants along the way.

Special 'All-the-way' fares

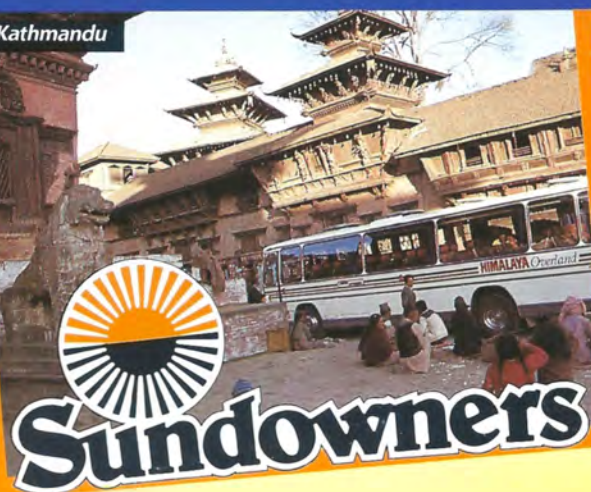

In conjunction with Thai International's Royal Orchid Service and with hotels in Bangkok and Kathmandu, Sundowners offer a very special deal. This can include two nights in Bangkok and three nights in Kathmandu with airport pick-ups, breakfast and city tours.

You can tie this in exactly to the date of departure from Kathmandu or you can travel a little earlier and spend longer there at only a little extra cost. It's very flexible and brilliant value, especially the round trip with the return from Europe by air. Or you can go the other way round, flying to Europe then returning with Sundowners "all-the-way".

Coaches

Our sturdy coaches will take you across the miles through incredible contrasts of season and landscape, over rugged mountain passes and shifting desert sands, along modern highway and camel track alike. They are comfortable and spacious and the normal group size is not more than 36. They have been modified for the tough conditions prevailing and forced-air ventilation is fitted.

Hotels

Accommodation is usually on a multi-share basis and it is not possible to confirm single, or even twin rooms, although they are at times available. There may also be one or two occasions when due to difficult timings, border closures etc. we may not even be able to reach a hotel and a night may have to be spent on the coach; fortunately such events are rare.

In these wonderfully different parts of our world the unexpected should be expected. And by teaming up with Sundowners you will discover that you can make a great personal contribution to your own enjoyment. It is with this spirit of adventure that we will be setting off together for the Himalayan valleys and the temples of India, for the bazaars of old Persia and the pyramids of Egypt and for the Kremlin palaces of the czars.

If you've a zest for new travel experiences, they're here. If you seek companionship in travel you need look no further. Come with us!

Road Crew

Your road crew are two people, courier and driver, who really know their stuff, working at making it all run smoothly — and sorting it out when it doesn't! Knowing not just the places to see but the places to avoid. They are experts in their chosen work and thrive as guide, trouble-shooter, food-buff, raconteur and friend.

People

A typical Sundowner group is Australians and New Zealanders with British and other Europeans, Canadians, Americans and sometimes others too — always an interesting and pretty good humoured bunch of people. Many are between 20-45 years of age, but in fact there is no age restriction; simply everyone reasonably fit and active and ready to pitch in.
